

Listen carefully to the Bible reading starting from Philemon chapter 1 verses 1 to 25.

There are lots of different kinds of books in the Bible.
Which is this one?

Poem

Letter

Law or Commandment

Story

Read verse 1. Who was this written to and who wrote it?

To: _____ and some others and the church in your house

From: _____

Where is the person who wrote the letter?

(clue: read verse 1 again carefully!)

On holiday

In prison

At home

This book is all about how we should treat other people if we are followers of Jesus and especially, how we should forgive

Why does Paul call Onesimus his brother? What does he mean?

Write numbers in the boxes to show in what order these things happened:

Onesimus meets Paul and becomes a believer

Onesimus runs away!

Onesimus was Philemon's servant

Paul sends Onesimus back to Philemon

Draw a short comic strip of what happened to Onesimus.

When Onesimus became a believer he worked with Paul to tell people the _____ (dgoo) (esnw)

But because he was a _____ who had run away, (lvsea)
Paul had to send him back.

Philemon was the rich man who Onesimus worked for before he ran away.

How do you think Philemon would feel about Onesimus?
Draw it here:

What do you think Philemon would do when he saw Onesimus again?

Onesimus would still be Philemon's...

• brother

but Philemon should also treat him as his...

• slave

What did Philemon need to do for Onesimus to be welcomed back again? (Clue: if you need a clue the answer is at the bottom of the last page!)

Use the words in the box to complete the sentences:

son	loves	forgive	children
-----	-------	---------	----------

God showed how much he _____ his children by sending Jesus his only _____ to die for them.

If we are his _____, he wants us to _____ one another just as he forgives us.

Do you remember the Lord's prayer? Some of us were learning this prayer not very long ago.

Part of the prayer reminds us of what we have been learning today:

“...and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.”

Matthew 6v12

This means:

“forgive us for the things we have done wrong to others, just as we forgive those who have done wrong to us.”

Pray

Thank God for his wonderful forgiveness through Jesus
Ask him to help us forgive others too
